

Conferences at

Franki's

GUEST LODGE

Situated in the heart of the Swartland, between the towns of Malmesbury and Darling, Franki's Guest Lodge offers the ideal setting for your conference. This 700 hectare farm has any number of opportunities for delegates to enter into the spirit of a getaway conference.

Numerous activities can be utilized to promote teambuilding, relaxation and interactive fun.

Taking the day-to-day city life out of the equation and placing a conference in a completely different environment focuses the mind and promotes "thinking out of the box".

Our facilities can accommodate a group of 10, in a quiet, relaxed setting.

Conference information

Standard equipment available:

Screen

Flipcharts & pens

Stationary

Whiteboard

Water & mints

Data projector (optional at R300 additional charge)

Style option:

Boardroom 10 pax

Prices and packages

| Overnight                                                                                                                                                                                                | Full day                                                                                                                                              | Half day                                                                                               |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| R800 p/p                                                                                                                                                                                                 | R250 p/p                                                                                                                                              | R200 p/p                                                                                               |
| Use of conference facilitiesBed & Full English breakfastMid-morning tea or coffee with confectionaryLight lunch with juiceMid-afternoon tea/coffee with confectionary2 course Dinner | Use of conference facilitiesMid-morning tea or coffee with confectionaryLight lunch with juiceMid-afternoon tea/coffee with confectionary | Use of conference facilitiesMid-morning tea or coffee with confectionaryLight lunch with juice |

Conference menu available on request.

- Juice will be supplied with lunch. Other beverages served during lunch will be charged for in addition to the final conference account and is not included in the delegate rate per person.
- Franki's Vineyards' wine will be available for dinner and any beverage served during dinner will be charged for in addition to the final conference account and is not included in the delegate rate per person.

Our cellar will be open for winetasting and sales.

All delegates will receive 10% discount on wine and 10% off accommodation for future group bookings

(12-18 people).

We invite you to visit us over a cup of coffee to do a formal site inspection and to discuss the specific requirements for your function. Please phone or e-mail to make an appointment and we will gladly show you around.

Natasha du Toit

Mobile: 0761053466

natasha@frankisvineyards.co.za

www.frankisvineyards.co.za